

Mass balancing explained

Mass balancing rationale:

- Opens opportunities for industry to make positive impact on climate - even while 100% replacement of fossil feedstock is not feasible, e.g. due to limited availability of circular/renewable feeds
- Possible with existing infrastructure
- Fossil materials can be gradually replaced to serve increasing demand for circular/renewable products
- Certification ensures that fossil materials were replaced with circular/renewable materials